

Part IV. Narrative Description of Your Activities

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions.

- What is the activity?
On-Online Employment Support Chat Group
- Who conducts the activity?
volunteer staff
- When is the activity conducted?
It will be one a week
- Where is the activity conducted (for example: Los Angeles and San Francisco, California)?
It will be conducted in Lawrence Massachusetts .
- How does the activity further your exempt purposes?
It augments efforts to help people on the spectrum acquire and / or keep jobs.
- What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
About 5%
- How is the activity funded? (This should agree with the financial data in Part IX.)
It will be funded by grants, donations and / or fundraising.

- What is the activity?

Customized employment readiness training, job search, and placement assistance for adults diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder—especially for adults who were diagnosed in adulthood.

- Who conducts the activity?

Employment Specialists with experience in helping adults with disabilities especially those diagnosed with High Functioning Autism Spectrum Disorder (Asperger's Syndrome)

- When is the activity conducted?

After the client applies for services

- Where is the activity conducted (for example: Los Angeles and San Francisco, California)?

The activity in the beginning will service clients in Eastern Massachusetts in our Lawrence, Massachusetts. As we grow, we hope to service clients throughout New England by setting up regional offices in each of the New England States.

- How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

This activity furthers our exempt purpose by providing a vital and much-needed service to persons diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder and related diagnoses.

- What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?

The percentage of total time that will be devoted to this service will be about 75 %.

- How is the activity funded? (This should agree with the financial data in Part IX.)

It will be funded by grants, donations and / or fundraising.

- What is the activity?
Fundraising such as charity concert featuring local artists
- Who conducts the activity?
volunteer staff
- When is the activity conducted?
It will be during one of the summer months after becoming a bona fide 501(c)(3).
- Where is the activity conducted (for example: Los Angeles and San Francisco, California)?
It will be conducted in Lawrence, Massachusetts.
- How does the activity further your exempt purposes?
It brings awareness to the general public the need for our organization.
- What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
About 10%
- How is the activity funded? (This should agree with the financial data in Part IX.)
It will be funded by grants and / or donations.

- What is the activity?
Various networking activities such as employer informational conference
- Who conducts the activity?
volunteer staff, board members
- When is the activity conducted?
Within a few months of becoming a bona fide 501(c)(3)
- Where is the activity conducted (for example: Los Angeles and San Francisco, California)?
Lawrence Massachusetts .
- How does the activity further your exempt purposes?
It will educate prospective employers on the benefits of hiring people on the spectrum.
- What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
About 10%
- How is the activity funded? (This should agree with the financial data in Part IX.)
It will be funded by grants, donations and / or fundraising.